SANDBAGS SAVE SANDWICH

Sandwich produced a well-prepared response to the flooding threats at the end of last week after the town quay was identified as a high-risk area.

Sandbags protected vulnerable buildings, including the local Army Cadet HQ, and police and firefighters ordered the car park opposite to be evacuated as the waters reached their highest point, just after 11am on Friday.

WORLD EXCLUSIVE

BY NICK AMES

THE US airforce pilot whose aircraft dropped the atomic bomb on Hiroshima wants his ashes to be scattered off the Channel coast.

Brigadier General Paul Tibbets who died earlier this month at his home in Columbus, Ohio, aged 92 said he did not want a headstone or a grave – as he feared it could become a target for anti-nuclear protesters.

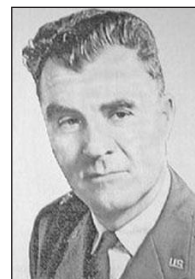

Instead the heavily decorated war hero who flew the B29 Superfortress Enola Gay on its historic mission over Japan told friends and family that he wanted to be cremated and his ashes dispersed in the English Channel – as that is where he enjoyed flying the most.

In the years prior to his death, Gen Tibbets had suffered a series of small strokes and heart problems and had been in care at a hospice.

A US source told this newspaper: "He laid down a statement in his will that there should be no funeral service after his death and no headstone for fear this might lead to demonstrations at his graveside."

"He wanted to ensure that his final resting place would never be a pilgrimage site for opponents of the use of nuclear weapons."

"Instead he wanted to be cremated and his ashes scattered in the waters of the English Channel. It was where he had enjoyed flying most

Streets closed due to flooding

■ BY TOM BETTS

A TIDAL surge brought flooding alerts to coastal areas today and streets in Sandwich and Deal had to be closed by police.

Highways Agency staff used sandbags to protect property as the River Stour breached its banks in the centre of Sandwich.

Beach Street in Deal was left covered in shingle as the floodwaters pushed stones across the street.

Three flood warnings remained in place along the shore into the afternoon, but Environment Agency officials said the peak tide passed just after 11am.

An emergency centre was set up in Sandwich by police and Dover council officers, while Maidstone Hospital was on an emergency standby.

However, there were no reports of any injuries.

Some 40 police officers were called to Deal after reports of pebbles from the beach flying across the road and parts of Sandwich near the town quay were sealed off.

Boats moored along the river were securely tied to their moorings overnight and many owners spent the day on board their vessels ensuring they did not drift up river.

PC Steve Harper ran the mobile incident centre in Sandwich which co-ordinated firefighters, council staff and police.

He said: "We managed to cope well with the situation, there was a lot of help from both the local council and the community as a whole.

"We had planned for this event and established a centre for people to use should they have been evacuated.

"However, it did not come to that

HIGH WATER: The quay in Sandwich was breached by the tidal surge and all we had to do was ensure the town centre car park was free of vehicles and seal off approach roads."

Sea levels were at their highest in the Sandwich Bay and Deal areas.

Windsurfer Andy Janes braved the waters in an attempt to ride the waves, but admitted the conditions were too severe.

"I tried to get into the surf, but I was just beaten back by a wall of water," he said.

"It was a truly epic sea and I love a challenge, but I have a young daughter at home so I didn't want to risk it."

Mathilda Griggs from Sandwich said she had been concerned since flood warnings were issued late on Thursday.

She said: "I was impressed at how much warning we received and by the preparations of the emergency services and other official bodies."

during the war."

Gen Tibbets was stationed in the UK when America joined the conflict before being recalled to the US for the atomic bombing raid.

On August 6, 1945, he took the controls of Enola Gay and took off from Tinian Island in the Pacific.

The atomic bomb, called Little Boy, exploded over Hiroshima at 8.15am, killing an estimated 140,000 people instantly, with many thousands perishing later from radiation sickness.

The raid – together with a subsequent atomic attack on Nagasaki – forced the Japanese to surrender and brought World War II to a close.

Following the conflict, Gen Tibbets made a career in civil aviation until his retirement in 1987, he has never expressed any regret at the raid.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Get switched on for the festive season

DOVER'S Christmas lights will be switched on this year with a little help from funny-man Dave Lee and actress Hilary O'Neil.

The build-up to the event promises fun and entertainment for all the family. There will be Ghurkha fighting displays, performances from the Dover Choral Society and much more.

The event is being held on Saturday, November 24 and starts at 11am.

The Christmas lights will be switched on at 4.30pm and will be followed by bell ringing and mulled wine at La Salle Verte on Cannon Street.

Free food tasting is also on offer at Halal International Food in Castle Street from 4.30pm onwards.

The Christmas Lights Switch-On Event 2007 is supported by Dover Town Council and presented by Dover Town Centre Management.

New deal to entice ferry passengers

LOYAL customers of SeaFrance Dover-Calais Ferries are being given the opportunity to save money and travel flexibly.

The new Carnet deal they are offering allows frequent travellers the option of travel that could save them hundreds of pounds.

Passengers can choose from a range of different options such as 18 single crossings from £26 each way for a car and up to nine passengers.

Along with saving money, Carnet customers are also offered flexibility on sailing times, free changes to bookings and can arrive at the port without pre-booking.

For further information, log on to www.seafrance.com/carnet.

Premiership photo to put on mantelpiece

YOU can have your photo taken with the Barclays Premiership trophy at the annual charity auction for the Dover Sea Sports Centre.

The event is on Friday, November 23, from 7.30pm at the Best Western Churchill Hotel and Health Club.

This final effort will hopefully ensure that the centre is equipped with all its fixtures and fittings by the time it is completed in 2008.

People are asked to donate items for the auction – the more unusual the better.

A night on the town with boys in blue

Tory parliamentary hopeful Charlie Elphike goes out on the police beat

■ BY CHARLIE ELPHICKE

GOING out for a Saturday night out with the police in Dover was a real experience. A night filled with drunken squabbles, arrests and swarms of bored kids. While most of us are tucked up in bed, the Police are very busy.

Early in the evening we went to River where problems were reported on the recreation ground. There we met a crowd of teenagers who were polite, even charming, but very fed up. They wanted somewhere to go and have fun without annoying local residents. They felt there were too few options for them in Dover town.

Many of the teenagers told me that their parents were pleased to see the back of them for the night. A lot of them were frustrated that their parents saw them as a nuisance and didn't seem that interested in their lives.

It brought home to me that if we engage more

with our younger people, they will feel more enthusiastic and feel less frustrated.

Going round with the police rams home the message that alcohol lies at the heart of many problems. We stopped gangs of children drinking underage. The drink was confiscated, but you won't catch them all. Shame on the shops that sell to them or allow them to get the drink. They are failing us all.

And shame on the drinks' companies that market booze at children. As the pubs and clubs turned out, the results of too much drink were plain. Arguments and fights, some resulting in arrests.

One of those arrested was fighting drunk and just 16. It broke my heart to see, as he plaintively bleated he was "standing up for my mate". I really hope he knocks off the drink and doesn't spend more time in the cells.

I had visions of seeing multiple villains being carted off to the nick at the drop of a hat (or should that be hoodie?). In fact they dealt coolly and calmly with the sort of provocation that would make most of us want to take a swing.

The emphasis was on getting drunks out of a situation rather than arrest on sight. "You never win an argument with a drunk" was their motto. Arrests were only made only when people really kicked off. For the police it is literally about keeping the peace. I feel incredibly proud of how they do their job and quite amazed at the patience they have.

Local tourist spots are pure ExSEllence

TWO local tourism ventures for White Cliffs Country have received an 'Oscar' of the tourism industry – an impressive 2007 Tourism ExSEllence Award.

The Tourism South East awards, which were held on October 23 at Wentworth Golf Club, commended South East England's best visitor attractions and places to stay.

Horace Holyer from Dover Town Centre Welcome Service was runner-up for the Outstanding Customer Service Award.

Mr Hoyler greets visitors from all over the world and tells them the best places to visit in the area.

He said: "I'm thrilled to have won the award. I meet people from all over and this is my favourite part of the job – I'm a real people person."

Gardeners Rest Guesthouse in Kingsdown was highly commended in the B&B/Guest Accommodation category.

The guesthouse, run by Ken and Sandra Upton, boasts spectacular views over the Kent countryside and beautiful gardens.

Visitors from as far as Belgium visit the guesthouse which was originally built as a house for the couple.

Discover eerie side to castle

AFTER-DARK ghost tours are being held to discover the dark side of Dover Castle.

The series of night-time tours will run from 5.30pm to 8.30pm on selected Fridays and Saturdays until February 16, 2008.

Knowledgeable tour guides will lead people round the spooky Secret Wartime Tunnels and the deserted Castle Keep.

Dover Castle's history stretches back 2000 years to Roman times and over time many stories of ghostly sightings have been reported.

Visitor Operations Manager Chris Pascall has seen many inexplicable apparitions. She said: "We love hearing new stories from visitors. Recently, a lady sent us an image of what can only be described as a ghostly woman holding a child in the medieval tunnels.

"When we explained that people have heard the sound of a baby crying down there you can imagine how shocked she was."

Tours cost £20 per person. They are not suitable for children under 11 and all children under 16 must be accompanied by an adult.

Sniffing out drugs infiltrating town

POLICE have searched passengers at Dover and Deal train stations as part of their battle against drugs in the district.

Passive drugs dogs were used to detect signs of drug possession and one person was arrested in Dover. Five other searches were carried out.

PC Adley, who works in Tactical Operations based in Maidstone, said: "This is an offset from Operation Rock to try to stop drug problems in the area.

"We want to stop the drug flow coming into Dover so we come to the stations or town with a passive drugs dog and carry out searches."

The dogs are trained for eight weeks to track down people who may have substances on them.

If the dog persistently approaches somebody this indicates to the police that they may carry drugs.

A search is then carried out although this does not necessarily result in an arrest.

PC Adley said: "Not everyone that gets searched has drugs on them. It could be that they were sitting next to somebody in possession of drugs or were mixing with people using substances."

Cannabis and cocaine are the main types of drug found on a person in operations such as this. Since decriminalisation of cannabis an increase of the drug has been found on people.

PC Adley said: "We find quite a lot of people with cannabis on them but if the amount is small we give them a caution. Obviously if it is more substantial an arrest will be made."

"We are more likely to find cocaine on people in the evenings and again, arrests are made."

The dogs involved in these operations are gun dog breeds and are unaggressive by nature.

The day's activities were part of an operation to disrupt drug dealers and their networks which follows the arrests of almost 50 people in a series of drug raids.

Inspector Paul Ludwig said: "We realise drugs are a concern for people in the Dover district and it can affect many people's lives which is why this operation was set up."

• A 32-YEAR-OLD man from Plymouth has been charged with possessing cannabis and released on bail to appear before Folkestone magistrates tomorrow (Thursday).

Air your views on Lydd expansion

A DATE has been set early next year to make the decision over plans to expand Lydd Airport – with the debate set to be broadcast live via webcam to affected areas on Romney Marsh.

A full meeting of Shepway Council will look into two applications – one for a new terminal building and one for a runway extension – on January 30.

The meeting will be held at the Civic Centre in Folkestone and the council is looking at how the debate can be relayed via webcam and a large screen television to a venue on the Marsh.

Representatives from Lydd and New Romney Town Council, pro and anti groups and local authorities will all be there as will environmental groups.

Two residents – one for and one against the expansion plans – will also be invited to address the meeting.

Leader of the Council Robert Bliss, said: "Everyone recognises that this is one of the biggest applications this council has had to consider.

"It is vital that we get a fair and balanced representation of public opinion as part of our decision-making process. I believe that the opportunities we are giving for all sides to address councillors will achieve this.

"We hope to relay the debate via wide screen television and via webcam and we are currently looking at ways this can be done so that the debate in the council chamber can be viewed by a wider audience."

Zoo boss's reunion

DONNA Air and Damian Aspinall could be staging a reconciliation say pals.

The TV presenter and the Port Lympne boss have met several times in recent weeks – despite the fact that they split up recently. A source said: "They are still talking through their problems, but everything looks promising."

Charity hopes to win cash for centre

FOLKESTONE Sports Centre will be attempting to secure The Peoples Millions to improve its facilities.

The historic sports trust's Cool 2B Fit project will be one of the charities appearing on the ITV program The People's Millions on Tuesday, November 27.

Folkestone Sports Centre is seeking to install a children's gym and a dedicated dry toboggan slope as part of their project.

The Sports Centre, which opened its doors to the public in 1972, is hoping to win the funding to go towards the plans for overall regeneration.

Manager Tessa Stickler wants to make sure that a regenerated Folkestone is fit for the 21st century. "It is really exciting as a local person to see what is happening to Folkestone now, with the university and the developments in the harbour," she said.

"The hope is that the regeneration of the town will bring in more people, as visitors or as permanent residents, and we want to give them somewhere to do their exercise.

■ BY ROB LIVINGSTONE

"Back in July 2005 we launched our campaign Cool 2B Fit and the idea of that was to educate kids that it is far cooler to be fit than to be over-weight and sit in front of a TV all day."

Winning the Peoples Million would go a long way towards funding the plans to improve the now ageing Sports Centre, said Tessa.

"The sport centre is coming up for being 40 years old, and it is starting to look 40 years old," she said, "Architecturally it is a big box, and it is not a particularly pretty box.

"It is still extremely functional; it just is not very modern."

The Folkestone Sports Centre is a charitable trust that aims to provide low-cost exercise facilities to the town.

Many generations of Folkestone's children have enjoyed learning a sport at the centre.

Recent notable alumni include Alex Heath, who was one of the Winter Olympics 2006 Skiing team, and golfer Sian Reddick, who is currently on a golf scholarship in Texas.

Tessa herself remembers raising money to finance the Sports Centre as a schoolgirl in the 60s.

"I was one of the many hundreds of kids that did the fundraising for the sports centre in the first place," said Tessa, "we all did things like sponsored spelling and sponsored silences to raise some money."

The telephone number to vote for the Cool 2B Fit project is published for one day only on Tuesday, November 27.

The number is available from www.biglotteryfund.org.uk/peoplesmillions from 9am and is also published in the Mirror newspaper.

The winner will be announced on Meridian South East News on that evening.

YOUR LITTER IS RAT FOOD

Environmental campaigners are calling for people not to drop food as it encourages the spread of rats.

Pencester Gardens in Dover is just one of the areas of East Kent which has seen an increase of the rodents in recent weeks and locals are alarmed as it is a popular play area.

A spokesman for Keep Britain Tidy said: "In the past three years we have seen a 50 per cent increase in fast-food related rubbish.

"This cannot fail to attract rats which can carry diseases. People need to clean up after themselves, particularly in places where children play.

"The problem is mainly related to takeaway foods which people seem to think they can spill on the ground and they will go away by themselves. People need to adopt a far more responsible attitude if the rat population is not going to get bigger."

Dover resident Mary Fox said: "Some people say you are never more than 10 feet away from a rat – well that's certainly true in the park."

"This is one of our larger projects," said Peter. "The idea is that it will form a centerpiece for the whole of the Creative Quarter, and it will open in July of next year."

The power station is one of the most important sources of local jobs, but opponents have long claimed it should be shut down entirely.

"We urge the county's opinion makers to endorse the installation of sprinkler systems in all new homes and in existing properties where vulnerable people are most at risk."

Mayor Peter Gane said: "The painting of these bins is a good example of cooperation between the town and district councils. They improvement the environment of the town."

Fire service's drive for safer homes to be built

IN a bid to cut the number of fire-related deaths to zero, Kent Fire and Rescue Service is launching a campaign to convince housing developers to install sprinkler systems in homes and businesses.

Chief executive Charlie Hendry said new building or renovation projects, such as those in Tontine Street, needed to be aware of the dangers posed by fire.

He said: "Kent faces a massive house-building programme over the coming years and I believe those who plan, design and build new homes have a responsibility to make sure residents are safe from the potentially devastating effects of fire."

Two foreign lorry drivers fined for A20 collision

POLICE have issued a warning to motorists over bad road conditions as winter draws closer.

It follows the sentencing of two motorists who pleaded guilty to careless driving earlier this month after a multiple collision in fog on the A20 between Dover and Folkestone.

Frank Gabor, 34, a Hungarian lorry driver, appeared before Folkestone magistrates and admitted careless driving and received a £250 fine and five penalty points.

Franz Steinscherer, 54, an Austrian national, also pleaded guilty to careless driving at Maidstone magistrates court. He was fined £100 and received nine penalty points. He was driving a lorry and trailer at the time of the crash.

QUESTION & ANSWER

MAGGIE STEPHENSON-KNIGHT

Q How long have you lived in Dover, and who or what brought you to the area?

A I'm actually a Dovorian in exile in that I'm not living in Dover – but I am trying to move back! I was born and brought up in Dover, attending St Martin's School (which my granddad did before me, as well as my cousins and my brother), and then Dover Grammar School for Girls. I come from a family that has been in Dover more than 400 years.

My antecedents a couple of centuries ago include smugglers and ne'er-do-wells, but at the same time another branch were Customs officers. The railways were big in our family – my great granddads, my granddads, my uncle and great uncles were all engine drivers – my own father was also a steam engineer, though this was on the cross-Channel ferries, where he was chief engineer.

It isn't surprising that the Stephenson in my surname comes from George Stephenson, the famous father of the railways, to whom we are related. The Knight part doesn't denote nobility of any sort – among their members is a lad of 14 transported to Australia for stealing a bowl!

Q How much do you think Dover has changed over the years?

A In some ways, not at all. There is the beautiful castle, the wonderful Western Heights, Kearsney Abbey, the marvellous seafront with the promenade, and of course the hills and cliffs. I used to walk for miles and miles over the downs, and knew every inch. There are still the lovely people, who are without exception, super stalwart people with a great sense of humour, and always fascinating to chat to.

In other ways it has changed. A big change for me is the road across Shakespeare Cliff. It's a wonderful view over Dover as one comes down it to the docks – but I do sometimes feel a little sad that the traffic cuts across the hill there.

One of the things that gave me quite a surprise was when our lovely war memorial outside Maison Dieu was restored. I remember the figure and the panels as black, so the new colour felt very strange to me. I like it very much – it's just different.

Dover is fascinating and because I spend so much time investigating the past it's almost like a palimpsest, and sometimes I have the uncanny feeling of seeing the townscape of the years gone by as I walk in the town.

Q What is your favourite thing about the area?

A The history, people and the sense that this is my home, which is something that has never left me. I love all the different views from different places – Dover is built on the hills, so wherever you go you'll find another wonderful view. One of my favourites is coming down Connaught Hill at night, seeing Dover lit up beneath. I love, too, the characters in Dover – it's a place where people can become characters, and Dover has had a good share of them. That's not just older Dovorian, either – there are some of our younger people who are wildly enthusiastic and knowledgeable about the things they do as volunteers. And my favourite street of all is East Cliff, where I often walk.

Q As the founder and chief researcher for the Dover War Memorial Project, do you find you get a lot of support from locals for your project?

A Yes, I have a huge file of wonderful letters and emails from people praising what we are doing with the project, and expressing how pleased they are that those who gave everything are being remembered in this way. There have been so very many people offering help – for a long time we were spinning with the response.

We've visited hundreds of homes, where we've been privileged to be given copies of photos and documents and been told stories of those who died and their families. We've answered thousands of queries, spent months researching various archives – people could not have been more supportive and kind. It's clear that the project is filling a need for remembrance of our Dovorian.

The virtual memorial, www.doverwarmemorialproject.org.uk, is global and people from around the world help us.

Q Dover is steeped in history. As a historian, do you find it an interesting place to live?

A Even if one weren't a historian, Dover would still be an interesting place to live. There's something for everyone.

furniture for life

The latest plasma screens have revolutionised television viewing, but the sheer size of these enormous units means they tend to dominate their environment. The answer to the problem comes in the form of magnificent, elevating cabinets which will definitely enhance rather than detract from your living space. The cabinets are available in traditional mahogany and yew as well as the latest contemporary natural oak. Your DVD player and VCR are stowed beneath the television and there is ample storage for DVDs and cassettes – and all hidden away behind the elegant veneered doors. The television itself is raised up by an ingenious, virtually silent mechanism operated by remote control. Listeners go online to hear DJs' confessions

BY GARY WRIGHT

INVICTA FM's online confessions are proving a huge hit with listeners anxious to find out all the dirt on their favourite presenter.

Bosses at the top station have ordered a host of its biggest names to confess their deepest secrets on camera in one of the most revealing stunts the station has ever staged.

Viewers at yourkenttv.co.uk can watch the likes of breakfast show king and queen James Heming and Ali Wheeler spill the beans.

An insider at the radio station revealed: "Listeners to the show will, for the first time, be able to see the presenters and look into their eyes as they reveal some of their worst moments."

Shocking

"It's surprising, embarrassing and shocking. It's a brilliant idea. The presenters have to tell fans something about themselves that they could never find out any other way. And the best part about it all is that it is all helping raise money for disadvantaged children."

Every confession will be broadcast on Yourkenttv.co.uk every day this week and as we went to press Claire Lawson was winning with her toilet story.

Ali Wheeler shocked the world by admitting what really turns her on in men and causes co-presenter James Heming to strip off.

KOS Media, publishers of this newspaper and broadcasters of Yourkenttv – will give £1 to the Help a Kent Child – for every person that registers this week. Registration is completely free and not only will members be able to upload their own video clips, they will also receive e-editions of our newspapers completely free.

Help a Kent Child is Invicta FM's charity

SECRETS REVEALED: (clockwise) Invicta FM's James Heming, Ali Wheeler, Andy Walker, Claire Lawson, Neil Kefford and Stephen Sullivan have revealed their most embarrassing moments in aid of charity which raises funds to help disadvantaged young people to fulfil dreams and ambitions they would never have thought possible.

There are many children in Kent who experience the negative effects of poverty, abuse, neglect, homelessness, violence, crime, illness and disability; who are carers for their own parents or who are indirect victims of domestic violence or suffer daily pain due to illness.

In this world of glamour and gain, these are the children Invicta FM and KOS Media want to help.

Afternoon show presenter Andy Walker initially refused to reveal anything more about himself, but as station bosses put their foot down the truth finally came out.

Drivetime presenter Neil Kefford was prepared and he just told the truth. "There was no other way," he said.

Evening presenter Stephen Sullivan almost escaped but no-one could be left out and he too was forced to reveal all.

• Go to www.yourkenttv.co.uk to see the presenters' confessions.

Green group calls for bike training to be improved

GREEN campaigners have accused Kent County Council of failing to provide enough cycle training to keep young people safe.

Kent Green Party says the county council should use the government's national training scheme – instead of its own one-day courses.

Campaigner Steve Dawe said: "Kent's courses are not being run under the Government's national scheme, in which far more training is provided."

"Medway uses the government scheme, gets a grant, and does not charge youngsters or their families for cycle proficiency training."

But KCC cabinet member for highways Keith Ferrin said: "We take cycle training very seriously. We offer our own Kent Rider scheme as an introduction to safer cycling for Year 6 pupils countywide."

"About 10,000 pupils were successfully introduced to cycling in this way during the last school year."

"The Kent scheme offers a one-day, on-the-road course with a ratio of one instructor for every six pupils."

"Parents pay £15 a year for the course which, I believe, represents good value-for-money."

He added: "In an ideal world we would offer free training to all, but the cost to the taxpayer would run into hundreds of thousands of pounds."

Over half our schools are officially labelled healthy

A TOTAL of 310 schools countywide have been officially designated as "healthy".

The NHS and Kent County Council are behind the move, which promotes fruit and veg tuck shops, healthy menus for lunch and physical activities.

It is designed as part of a lifestyle package which also includes educational standards and personal well-being.

A total of 59 per cent of schools across the county have currently qualified for the award.

Chris Wells, KCC schools chief, said: "Hopefully the programme will influence pupils throughout their lives and in turn inspire their families to healthier lifestyles."

All wrapped up

Simon Robinson finds out how to make your gift even more special with a new wrapping service at Bluewater

THE RUN-UP to Christmas fills me with dread.

As a criminally disorganised 20-something male, just thinking about the whole present-buying process is enough to bring me out in a cold sweat.

I know how it should be done; think of what your loved-ones would like, buy it, wrap it, stick it under the tree.

Sadly I am completely lacking in the necessary skills to complete this seemingly simple four-part task.

Unable to use any initiative when it comes to matching people with gifts and quick to use the 'head-in-the-sand' technique, I'm resigned to my fate of aimlessly wandering through Bluewater's halls on Christmas Eve desperate, panicked and alone. Again.

Having impulse-bought for England to get past the purchasing stage I move on to the next equally daunting challenge – wrapping.

Armed with only three metres of wrapping paper, a pair of scissors and a roll of sticky tape, I'm usually able to make steady progress on the standard-shaped pressies – books, CDs and DVDs.

It's the odd-shaped and awkwardly-packaged gifts which reduce me to tears: how do you wrap a football?!

Enter gift wrapping guru Jane Mears with a host of top tips and advice for people like me who have the hand equivalent of two left feet.

After an hour of paper creasing, knot-tying and ribbon cutting at one of Jane's workshops I had successfully wrapped a bottle of wine, a Christmas pudding and made a giftbag.

What's more, said items neither resemble a train wreck nor were they precariously held together with 100 pieces of sticky tape.

I'm confident for the first time this year I can offer the family perfectly wrapped presents on Christmas morning, but they'll still be handed over while rolling out my usual disclaimer "if you don't like it, I've got the receipt".

Jane's top tips

- 1 For awkward shapes, use flexible wrapping like cellophane.
- 2 If wrapping something sharp, pad with tissue or bubble wrap first.
- 3 Use double sided tape for that professional touch.
- 4 Keep your wrapping area organised and free of clutter.
- 5 Keep ribbon and paper offcuts, they will come in handy for decorative touches.
- 6 If it's round, place a bowl underneath your paper to keep it still.
- 7 When wrapping garments, fold neatly into a compact square or oblong and wrap with tissue.
- 8 Make sure you have some sharp scissors for cutting ribbon. Blunt scissors are only good for cutting paper.
- 9 If you can't be bothered to do it yourself, Webster's Wrapology are offering a unique, high quality gift wrapping service within Bluewater up to Christmas Eve. Prices start from £3.95 for a small item and go up to £7.95 for a large gift.

Shopping centre switch-on draws crowds

BLUEWATER celebrated the start of the Christmas shopping season on Thursday as Santa switched on the Christmas lights.

Invicta FM's Ali Wheeler and James Heming, with characters from upcoming festive movie Alvin and the Chipmunks, joined Father Christmas for the big turn on watched by a crowd of several hundred people.

The shopping mall also opened its grotto for Christmas with children from the Demelza House hospice getting a special preview.

Radio personality Ali said:

"This has been great, we've had loads of children and families and they're all enjoying themselves."

Bluewater shopping centre is expecting trade to grow over the coming weeks.

General manager Andre Parkinson said: "We've had an excellent year already, but the festive season is always busy."

"The lead up to Christmas sees shoppers flocking here – but our busiest day of the year is actually December 27. So there is not going to be much of a rest for our staff over the holiday period."

HEAVENLY: A back massage is a wonderful way to relax and feel truly pampered

Look and feel good

EXPERIENCE a myriad of pleasures at KOS Media's fantastic Look Good, Feel Good Show in Chatham this weekend.

Sponsored by Fitness from David Lloyd, the show offers a huge range of health and beauty products from about 100 exhibitors.

The two-day event at Big Blue, opposite St Mary's Island, will give visitors the chance to shop 'til they drop whilst being pampered, educated and entertained.

Products, information, samples and special offers will be available from the worlds of hair care, make up, fitness, fashion, lingerie, accessories, spas and many more. There will be countless ideas for Christmas gifts, along with a food hall offering a variety of delicious delicacies.

Fashion shows, dance and fitness demonstrations feature in a packed programme for the catwalk area on both days.

With two exciting children's zones, there should also be plenty to keep the little ones happy.

All this luxury does not cost the earth, with tickets priced at just £3.50 for adults and free admission for children aged 14 and under. Vouchers offering a £1 discount can be found in all Your Local newspapers and various outlets.

With ample free parking, visitors can look forward to a stress-free day out.

The Look Good, Feel Good Show will be held on Saturday and Sunday, November 17-18. Opening times are 10am to 5pm and 10am to 4pm. For details, call 01303 817172 or visit www.kentnews.co.uk/lookgood.

GLORIOUS MUD: It may not look it, but a mud bath can be very good for your skin

DOVER SHOPPING

Santa Claus to pay an early visit to shops

FATHER Christmas will be coming to Folkestone early this year.

He will be taking up residence at the Folkestone branch of Debenhams on Saturday, November 24.

Father Christmas and his reindeer will lead a parade to the store from the Leas Cliff Hall at 11am. The parade will include the Sea Cadets Band, the Folkestone Angels Majorettes and this year's Miss Folkestone.

Father Christmas will be at Debenhams throughout December, before heading off to the North Pole to deliver the world's presents.

Fashion boutique offers classical modernity

FASHION has come to Folkestone, with the official opening of Olivia Maclean's new boutique.

Olivia will be offering exclusive clothes, jewellery and bags from her own label.

"We use a mixture of modern and classical materials to create our range," said Olivia, who believes shoppers have started to realise the benefits of the refurbished Old High Street. "People have started to come down here now that they realise there are shops down here."

Triple your collection of vintage goodies

WITH vintage style more in vogue than ever this autumn, find some essential items at Triple H in Canterbury.

The shop in Sun Street stocks a fantastic range of vintage-inspired clothes and accessories, both everyday wear and more glamorous outfits for those festive evenings.

From shoes, bags and coats to affordable, quality gifts, Triple H offers a great selection to choose from.

To find out more, visit the shop or call 01227 458111.

Roaringly good winter fun at animal parks

HOWLETT'S and Port Lympne wild animal parks have launched their special winter admission rates with visitors able to enjoy a complimentary hot drink.

Visitors to Howletts in Bekesbourne and Port Lympne near Hythe, are able to discover over 100 species and almost 1,000 animals.

The parks are open daily, 10am-5pm (closed Christmas Day). Admission is £7.95/£9.95. For details see www.wild.net or telephone 01303 264647.

Breakfast duo to come and light up the shops

INVICTA FM's morning show presenters James Heming and Ali Wheeler will hit the switch on the Christmas lights at the Ashford Designer Outlet tomorrow.

The duo will be joined by the larger than life characters of Homer and Bart Simpson to get the festive spirit flowing at the discount shopping centre as it begins its build-up to the big day.

The outlet's Big Christmas Switch On gets underway from 6pm.

WIN! OralClens natural fresh-breath kits

TO SURVIVE the most sociable time of the year and celebrate the Christmas party season with a dazzling smile, Oralclens, the oral care specialists, are giving away TEN new fresh-breath kits to lucky winners

Lucky winners will receive this fabulous fresh-breath pack, which includes the brand new OralClens Natural mouthwashes.

Proven to kill 99.9 per cent of oral bacteria and ensuring constant fresh breath, the natural range comes in two flavours (citrus and mint), which are both alcohol-free and do not contain chemicals like Sodium Benzoate (commonly found in other high street mouthwashes).

This means they are kinder and gentler on your mouth and gums and suitable for all the family.

The packs, worth about £70, also contain OralClens Natural Toothpaste, pocket-size interdental brushes/handle, Powerfloss, Citroxx OralSpray, tongue scrapers, long-stem interdental brush holders and floss picks – all essential for creating that impressive winning smile over the festive period.

If you are not a lucky winner of the fresh-breath packs, come along to the Look Good Feel Good show at Big Blue Chatham, on Saturday and Sunday, November 17-18, to get a free sample of Oralclens toothpaste and mouthwash.

To enter, simply answer the question below and send your entry on a postcard, along with your email address (if applicable), name, address and daytime telephone number to Oralclens Comp, KOS Media, Apple Barn, Smeeth, Ashford, Kent TN25 6SR. Closing date November 30, 2007.

Question: How many flavours are there in the Oralclens mouthwash range?

TALK TIME

NEIL ARNOLD

Neil Arnold, one of Kent's leading crypto-zoologists (he studies animals believed to be extinct), discusses sightings of the mysterious big cat across the county

How did you get into studying big cat sightings?

It all started when I was eight or nine. I used to live near Blue Bell Hill and got interested in some of the stories about the place. I started collecting cuttings when I was about 12 and it grew from there. Now I'm almost a full-time crypto-zoologist, someone who studies hard to find animals. It's more than a hobby. People call me when they've seen a big cat, or claim to have hit one in their car, so I have to know what I'm doing. I deal with a lot of nutters, but you get used to that.

Have there been any local sightings?

In Faversham the sightings are few and far between, although there have been reports of a big cat in the orchards at Brogdale, lazing about in the sun. Canterbury is a real hot-spot – both Canterbury and Ashford are some of the hottest parts of the county. There are regular sightings all though the year, and there have been sheep attacks in villages around Canterbury. People think they have escaped from the zoos down there, but that's complete rubbish.

Where do they come from?

People think it's a modern thing, but it goes a lot deeper. The Romans brought thousands of exotic animals over to use in their amphitheatres, and of course some escaped. But there was no register or anything in those days, so no one knew how many there were. This has persisted right up to Victorian times, when big cats used to feature in travelling shows. Up until the 1950s it was still possible to order a leopard in Harrods, or get one through the classifieds.

Tourism should be a priority

The statement on the front of last week's Yourdover from a councillor who said tourism was not a priority for the town summed up all that is wrong with our local authority.

As a major gateway to Britain, Dover should go all-out to attract visitors. Its ferry port is the busiest in the country, and cruise ships are docking with increasing frequency.

So for those with the town's interests at heart, to read comments such as those by Cllr Sue Nicholls is so frustrating.

Joan Merton

Tunnel services should expand

The news that a German rail company wants to operate trains through the Channel Tunnel has got to be good.

This vastly expensive endeavour is hardly used to maximum capacity now, so any further services should be welcomed.

It would also be good if they stopped somewhere in Kent rather than headed straight up to London.

Paul Hughes

Rural living is under attack

Yet again the Government seems to be attacking the rural way of life, according to farmers on Romney Marsh.

Surely compensation should be paid to those whose livelihoods are being affected by stringent – and to my mind unnecessary – regulations brought in after a handful of disease cases.

This administration really seems to have it in for country

Dave's just great for trade

I went down to Sandgate at the weekend and was amazed at how many people were looking out to sea for Dave the Dolphin.

She is certainly boosting tourism in the area – maybe she should be incorporated into the local town or village crest?

In reality, shows are a real bore

Is there no escape from them? That's reality TV shows, of course. No sooner has one rotten series finished than another begins. Now it's the jungle one which we will have to put up with.

Who wants to see all these deadbeats eating bugs and complaining about the toilet facilities? I for one will not be watching for even a second.

How can we shop if we can't park?

Can I just use this newspaper to complain about parking in Dover?

It is impossible to find a place to stop near the centre for longer than an hour.

If the town wants to attract people, why not build a decent-sized car park?

Wow! Look at me now!

I dropped 3 dress sizes in just 6 weeks.

I liked all the wrong foods especially crisps and nuts, and my weight kept creeping up and up. I wasn't happy being a size 18 but crash dieting only made me put on more weight.

I had tried a slimming club, but didn't like the group element and their food plans didn't fit in with my social life.

When SureSlim got the results of my blood test, it confirmed that I had high levels of glucose in my system, which made me more hungry than I should have been, subsequently I was over-eating. SureSlim then drew up a food plan based on what would work for me. The first week I struggled, wondering how I would cope without milk in my tea, but by week two I wasn't even thinking about it.

I've not just lost the weight either – I've also lost the over-whelming feeling of tiredness that I used to have.

I was comfort eating as I was stressed in my job and the weight just crept up. That's when I realised I had to do something. Once I started on the plan to my amazement I lost 10 pounds in the first 10 days!

And now I've reached my goal weight in I can happily wear my little blue dress!

Not an advent calendar in sight

Everyone seems to complain about how Christmas begins earlier each year, and, while to some extent agreeing, I have been searching everywhere for an advent calendar to send to a friend in America.

They have them over there, of course – but she wanted a traditional English one.

Can I find one anywhere? No.

Can we slice the cost off bread?

It has struck me recently how expensive bread is – I recently paid £1.12 for a sliced loaf, which I consider extortionate.

Milk also seems to have gone up and I recently paid 50p for a pint.

The cost of living just with basic items seems to have gone through the roof.

Nicola Higgins
Folkestone

We need to create value for money

First it was the cost of yobs, and then it was the council not being able to afford tourism. What this shows is the incompetence we suffer in the Dover ward.

One can only improve tourism if one stops the traffic and produces value for the visitor.

Our region is blessed with historic sites aplenty but lacks the value required today.

If one cannot provide this as the minimum, one negates potential, especially in the tourism sector. Ask Walt Disney, Disney Paris, the Dome, Alton Towers and others.

Diabetic children need more support

Today is World Diabetes Day and we are writing to tell you about the problems faced by children with diabetes in schools across the UK.

A survey published today by charities Diabetes UK, Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF), INPUT and UK Children with Diabetes Advocacy Group showed that school staff are often not given the training they need to help children with Type 1 diabetes manage their condition on a daily basis or in an emergency, which is putting these youngsters' health in danger.

As parents of a child who has Type 1 diabetes, we feel every school in England needs to implement a policy that sets out how children with diabetes should be supported.

The sooner we help families by getting a joined-up approach to helping school children live with the condition, the sooner these young people will be able to enjoy their childhood like others their age.

Shaun lacks magic light into future

Actor Williamson looks back over a busy year, and forward to the unexpected

AFTER a packed year, Maidstone-born actor Shaun Williamson is looking forward to an uncertain future.

Currently preparing to star in pantomime at The Marlowe Theatre, Williamson has no fixed plans for the new year, despite a number of offers.

"Sometimes the phone just rings and it changes your life," he said.

"I don't mean that in a grandiose way, but it can be nice just waiting to see what will turn up next. I didn't think anything would happen this year, but I've not stopped."

One call that certainly did change his life was from comedy star Ricky Gervais two years ago.

Following Williamson's performance as the hapless Barry Evans in EastEnders, Gervais wanted him in Extras.

"I'd never met Ricky – he just called and offered me the part. He told me 'We need to discuss it because you might not like it', but they outlined the first series and it sounded great."

After 10 years in EastEnders, Williamson was ready for a change. To say his character Barry had a tough time is an understatement – he was frequently conned, lost his father and was wrongly diagnosed as having a fatal condition before being murdered by his unfaithful wife.

Since he left the soap in 2004, however, life has been distinctly more upbeat.

The accomplished singer, who lives with his family near Faversham, has enjoyed runs in the West End with Saturday Night Fever and Guys and Dolls, starred in the Rocky Horror Show and Oliver, and appeared on numerous television programmes.

He has also acted recently in an adaptation of Rapunzel for the BBC and filmed a movie, British drama Daylight Robbery.

He will be stepping into Barry/Shaun's shoes again for the Extras Christmas special. It is likely to be the last episode, but he is still upbeat about the future: "I never thought I would be working with Ricky Gervais in a million years. I've been so lucky."

Shaun Williamson will be appearing as Abanazar in Aladdin, alongside presenter Stephen Mulhern, local hero Dave Lee and a troupe of Mongolian acrobats.

Tickets are priced from £8.50 to £21.50. For details, you can visit www.marlowetheatre.com, phone the box office on 01227 787787, or pick up a brochure from the theatre.

BARCLAY JAMES HARVEST

Tuesday, November 27
Astor Theatre Arts Centre, Deal

PAST hits and new songs will feature in the latest show by Barclay James Harvest Featuring Les Holroyd (pictured).

Formed in the mid-1960s, Barclay James Harvest was considered one of the innovators of progressive rock, alongside then-label mates Pink Floyd. During the last 40 years, the band has created and broken records and blazed a trail for other acts to follow.

It was the first band to perform an outdoor gig in Europe and set the benchmark for attracting paying attendees during a continuous tour cycle.

In 1980 the band performed for a reported 275,000 people on the steps of West Berlin's Reichstag, with a similar estimated number listening on the East side.

With a new line-up in 1998, the album Revolution Days was released by Barclay James Harvest Featuring Les Holroyd.

Founder-member and drummer Mel Pritchard died three years ago, but the band made a comeback in 2006 touring Europe with the City of Prague Philharmonic Orchestra. A new studio album is due next year.

The concert starts at 8pm and tickets cost £20. To book, phone 01304 381134 or visit the website www.astortheatre.co.uk for more booking information.

LOCAL HEROES

Friday, November 16
Leas Cliff Hall, Folkestone

SOME of the county's finest performers are being brought together for a fantastic evening of live music.

After a long hiatus, the Leas Cliff Hall in Folkestone will be hosting Local Heroes, an event designed to offer the county's talent a bigger stage, without having to travel to London.

With a diverse mix of folk, funk, punk, ska and rock, the concert should offer something for almost every taste.

The line-up includes four of Kent's best bands, starting with Syd Arthur from Canterbury whose style is best described as "psychedelic funk rock". Next up will be Springtide Cavalry with their unique sound, somewhere between rock, pop and punk.

Legendary ska/punk band Weightloss will be highlighting social issues with their angry lyrics, before alternative rock band Sizen (pictured) take to the stage.

The bands will be supported by four great acoustic acts – effortless performer Rob John Gambrell, Canterbury legend Jon Woode, folk/rock five-piece Amber Room and singer/songwriter Lucy Kitt. Local Heroes starts at 7pm and tickets cost £10.

To book, call the box office on 0870 4000 890 or for more details visit the website at www.leascliffhall.co.uk.

AN EVENING WITH RUDYARD KIPLING

Thursday, November 29
The Sinden Theatre, Tenterden

SPEND an evening with one of Britain's most cherished writers as Rudyard Kipling makes a final appearance.

Brought to life by local actor, writer and historian Geoff Hutchinson, the poet and novelist is as popular today as he was a century ago. In 1907 Kipling became the youngest person ever to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature and the first English language author to be honoured with the prestigious award.

Having created such beloved tales as The Jungle Book and the Just So stories, Kipling still ranks among the nation's favourite writers.

In this hour-long, one-man show, the audience is treated to a broad spectrum of Kipling's work. Striding about the stage, pipe in hand, Hutchinson's compelling performance should keep his audience enthralled.

An Evening With Rudyard Kipling starts at 7.30pm. Tickets, costing £8/£4, are available from the theatre's box office on 01580 763826, online at www.sindentheatre.biz or from the Friends of the Sinden Theatre on 01233 850859.

DOVER LEISURE

FOOTBALL fans can have their picture taken with the Barclays Premiership Trophy at a charity auction in Dover.

The Best Western Churchill Hotel and Health Club on the Waterfront has managed to get hold of the trophy just for the event on Friday, November 23. The auction will raise money for the Sea Sports Development on the Waterfront.

Entry is by invitation only; phone Michelle Sheppard on 01304 203633, or email sdcc@churchill-hotel.com.

Emotional mix of songs from musical couple

HUSBAND and wife duo Mixed Emotions will be performing in Great Mongeham, Deal, on Friday (November 16).

The pair, who have been performing together for 14 years, play a range of songs from the 1960s to the present day, including hits by Frank Sinatra, Robbie Williams and Bon Jovi.

Mixed Emotions will appear at The Three Horseshoes in Mongeham Road. For details, phone 01304 375812.

Live entertainment to put you in a turmoil

ENJOY live covers of classic rock songs at The Park Inn in Park Place, Dover, on Saturday (November 17).

Turmoil, a four-piece band from the Dover and Folkestone area, will be performing hits by a diverse range of acts including Blink 182, Green Day, Stereophonics, Jimi Hendrix, Nirvana and Pink Floyd.

To find out more about the gig, phone the inn on 01304 203300, or to hear the band's three-track EP, visit the website www.audiostreet.net/turmoil.

Tune in to club for a night on the airwaves

GET ON the airwaves with the Dover Amateur Radio Club, which meets every Wednesday during term time.

Tonight, there will be a talk about the technical aspects of radio, then on Wednesday, November 24, there will be an operating and natter night.

The club meets at the Grammar School for Boys in Astor Avenue at 7.30pm. To find out more, visit www.darc.org.uk.

ON GENERAL RELEASE

GOOD LUCK CHUCK (15)

It all started when Chuck was 10 years old. Breaking the cardinal rules of spin-the-bottle, Charlie refused to kiss a Goth girl, and she put a hex on him. Now, 25 years later, Charlie is a successful dentist... and still cursed so that any girl who sleeps with him will fall madly in love with the next man she meets.

PLANET TERROR (18)

After an experimental bio nerve gas is accidentally released at a remote US military base in Texas, those exposed to the gas turn into flesh eating, mutating zombies out to kill.

Rodriguez directs at full pelt, but his film runs out of dramatic steam in the first hour, leaving the majority of the overblown action to his feisty, gravity-defying heroine.

BUG (18)

A weirdo war veteran who suffers hallucinations about insects shacks up in an Oklahoma city motel with Agnes, a lonely waitress on the run from her abusive husband. As the misfits bond, his paranoia gradually infects Aggie, driving the pair of them to experience terrifying visions.

Robert's focus on America

■ BY EILEEN CONDON

ACTOR and director Robert Redford has no intention of mellowing with age – despite turning 71 this year.

In fact the star says he is more opinionated than ever – particularly when it comes to the current situation in the US.

"It's true to say I'm probably getting angrier and more engaged," he says flashing his trademark blue eyes.

"I'm aware that America has a lot of power and a lot of ability to do good in the world, so I'm very interested in what has happened to our reputation in the world since 9/11."

Redford's laid-back demeanour and gentle manner belies a fierce passion for politics which he's channelled through some of cinema's most influential films, like The Candidate and All The President's Men.

And almost 40 years after hitting the big time in Butch Cassidy And The Sundance Kid, he has come out with all guns blazing again. This time, with his latest movie Lions For Lambs, he has his targets firmly set on the American media, education and on US Congress.

Redford, who also directed the film, stars alongside Tom Cruise and Meryl Streep as an idealistic college professor who inadvertently propels two of his former students into the Afghanistan war with tragic consequences.

Though he had not directed a film for seven years, the veteran star says the screenplay immediately resonated with him. "I was surprised by it because it was political and there's so much commercial insecurity about films these days it seems that only the ones that play safe get made."

"Those that are more risky in nature, that

yourkenttv.co.uk

maybe make you think or wonder, are harder to come by. And yet those are the films I've always enjoyed making," he explains.

"To me, it's a film about personal responsibility, about young people accepting the role they play in shaping the future and about how we each deal with our choices in life."

Playing a college professor also struck an ironic chord with the star, as his own education was cut short when he was kicked out of the University of Colorado for drunkenness.

The failed college student went on to become one of the most successful actors in screen history thanks to acclaimed performances in hit films such as Butch Cassidy, The Sting, The Way We Were and The Great Gatsby.

He's also proved to be equally skilled behind the camera with an Oscar win for his directorial debut Ordinary People and a nomination for his 1994 film Quiz Show.

PASSION: Robert Redford directed and stars in his new film Lions for Lambs, a modern, political movie

Despite his stellar career Redford has maintained his integrity as a committed environmentalist and set up the hugely-successful Sundance Film Festival, which encourages new film-makers and actors.

He gave two of the hottest current talents in Hollywood their big break, Brad Pitt in A River Runs Through It, which he directed and Scarlett Johansson, in The Horse Whisperer. His latest find is rising British star Andrew Garfield, who appears in Lions For Lambs.

"I've always enjoyed finding new people," said Redford. "I knew Andrew was English and I'd seen a lot of American actors, but I was very impressed that he could come in and read the part perfectly in an American accent."

Enjoy an exotic island mixer

■ BY CHRIS COURT

A FEW miles south-west of its rather more exotic neighbour Mustique, Canouan may at last be ready to shrug off its image as the forgotten island of the Caribbean.

Thanks to the vision of two multi-millionaires, the green and hilly three square miles of Canouan have been sensitively transformed into a luxury, multi-activity holiday destination.

The island now offers everything most visitors could possibly want – thanks to Swiss-Italian banker Antonio Saladino and American businessman Donald Trump, who have ensured there is plenty to do ashore and afloat, as well as simply soaking up the sun.

At the heart of the Grenadines chain, Canouan has five palm-fringed, soft white coral sand beaches, bath-warm brilliant turquoise seas, a 1.5-mile coral reef, views for miles over the Caribbean from its peaks and average minimum temperatures around 25°C.

Visitors meander the snaking network of narrow roads and paths in golf carts, taking care to avoid the population of tortoises – known locally as turtles – after which the island was named.

A 15-year plan to build 135 high-spec Trump Island Villas, costing from about £1 million, will enable the super-rich to have their own slice of secluded Caribbean paradise here, with breathtaking views.

BEAUTY: A sunset view of Canouan Island's golf course from the balcony of a Raffles resort holiday cottage

Shorter-term, and less well-off, visitors can wallow in top-of-the-range facilities on the 300-acre, five-star Raffles Resort instead, and the smaller Tamarind Beach Hotel & Yacht Club, with both offering superb world cuisine at various gourmet restaurants.

Raffles Resort Canouan Island complex – the luxury hotel group's first resort in the western hemisphere – opened in August 2004.

An amphitheatre-shaped, palm tree setting overlooking sheltered Carenage Bay, it holds 156 dramatically decorated and stylishly furnished one to four bedroom suites and villas, with garden, ocean or golf course views.

If you can drag yourself away from the hotel's gorgeous confines, there's plenty to see and do. We took a high-speed motorboat to Tobago Keys, just 40 minutes away. Because our visit was in the September-October close season, we had this island virtually to ourselves – although a chap soon appeared with a wide choice of T-shirts for sale.

With many young people leaving to find work on other islands, Canouan's population dwindled to under 500. But in 1990, Saladino took a 99-year lease on 1,200 acres, two thirds, of the island.

The story goes that he was unable to build on Mustique and saw Canouan's potential just a few miles across the Caribbean.

Since then the banker and Canouan Resorts Development, which he heads, have spent more than £100m installing an airstrip, roads, electricity, water production, a clinic, schools and a training college.

Now there are some 500 people working at the island's 300-acre Raffles Resort, more than 80 at Tamarind, and some 300 for Trump's villa developments building company.

Raffles merits such a large workforce. As well as the golf course and the fabulous restaurants, it has a well-equipped gym and also offers tennis, yoga, mountain biking and power walking, and sea sports including windsurfing, sailing diving and snorkelling.

YOUR WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

BY RUSSELL GRANT

AQUARIUS (Jan 21 - Feb 19)

THE next three weeks find you having extensive talks with authority figures. This may be your big chance to present a bold idea, ask for a promotion, or enact changes to a large organisation. Don't be vague in your responses. If you don't know the answer to a question, admit it. Hedging will make people suspicious.

TAURUS (Apr 21 - May 21)

ENTERING into a professional partnership is a good idea. There's never been a better time to sign a contract. Your employer may be vague about future rewards. Get any promises regarding payments in writing. Be willing to make amends. A meeting of the minds generates romance. Nothing excites your imagination like common interests.

LEO (July 24 - Aug 23)

REAL estate matters could take up a good deal of your week. This is a good time to negotiate a home purchase or rental agreement. A romantic partner's ideas about domestic life may be very different from yours. It may be necessary to revise a project. Do this behind the scenes. The less attention you draw to this matter, the better.

SCORPIO (Oct 24 - Nov 22)

YOU'LL find a receptive audience to your ideas. Take each and every opportunity to share your brainstorms. Confusion over a family matter could undermine your authority. If you think you made a mistake, be honest. Don't be too forceful when discussing sensitive matters like religion and politics. An older friend will impart good advice.

PISCES (Feb 20 - Mar 20)

IF you've been thinking of going back to school, send out applications before the end of the month. If you're interested in winning someone's heart, play hard to get. Pairing up with someone who has lots of experience can advance your cause, particularly if you are doing business overseas or are dealing with an unfamiliar culture.

GEMINI (May 22 - Jun 22)

IF you've been suffering from a nagging pain, get a consultation with a health professional. Looking for work? Send out a slew of CVs and job applications. Take an expert's advice with a grain of salt, especially with regard to your job. Curb your spending between now and January, or you could incur some serious debt.

VIRGO (Aug 24 - Sep 23)

IF you're in the market for office equipment, you're in luck. Don't overestimate your physical endurance, especially with regard to work. Putting in late nights and long hours could really tax your health. Pulling back from an intense group project will give you more time for personal pursuits between now and late January.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov 23 - Dec 21)

KEEP your own counsel over the next three weeks. It's best to keep plans private. What was meant as a kind remark could be interpreted the wrong way. Be prepared to explain yourself. It may be best to back down from an amorous affair, as this alliance seems to be clouding your thinking. Onlookers are impressed by your modesty.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr 20)

THIS week prompts you to think carefully about joint finances. Neither a lender nor a borrower be, especially where friends are concerned. A home improvement project could experience some delays between now and January; it may be time to table any major decisions regarding this job. Being resourceful earns you great success at work.

CANCER (Jun 23 - Jul 23)

MAKING plans for a vacation, party, or club gathering is a good use of your talent this week. It gives you great pleasure to organise fun activities. If you're already in a relationship, take care to learn your partner's true desires. It may be best to downplay your aggression. You can't afford to make enemies during this tense period.

LIBRA (Sep 24 - Oct 23)

NEGOTIATING new financial arrangements could prove profitable. A show of wealth won't impress a love interest - use your creativity as bait. An aggressive authority figure is beginning to let up; you could get a welcome reprieve from their oppressive gaze between now and early February. Trust your intuition with regard to a business deal.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan 20)

GROUP efforts stimulate your imagination. If you have an idea, run it past a supportive group of friends. Together, you can create a masterpiece, turning a merely good concept into a brilliant one. Don't assume that your peers have as much money as you do. Ease off a partner who is showing signs of strain. Compassion goes a long way.

Trinny and Susannah shape up UK's women

■ BY ANDY WELCH

FROM cellos and goblets to bricks and lollipops, Trinny and Susannah believe they've finally come up with the 12 definitive female body shapes after interrogating thousands of British women about their saddle bags, muffin tops, cankles and pot bellies.

"In our first book we researched the big issues for women such as massive or no boobs, flabby arms, wide hips, short legs, flabby tummies and so on, but over the years a lot of women have pointed out that some of the rules contradicted each other. We thought we'd better deal with that so we came up with the 12 shapes," Trinny explains.

"There's way too much emphasis on what dress size someone is but I never, ever look at the labels in clothes when I'm dressing somebody. I look at the woman's shape and the contrast between her boobs and tummy or whatever, not by picking out a size 14 jacket and just hoping it works."

Susannah adds: "Basically, we wrote The Body Shape Bible to give women confidence and to stop them pulling their hair out when they go shopping for clothes!"

Trinny and Susannah's latest tome highlights the main characteristics of each of their 12 new female body shapes and illustrates how just how easy it is to make simple mistakes by blindly following fashion instead of being aware of what suits your shape.

"The rules and ideas in the book are simple

SHOPPING SUPREMOS: Trinny and Susannah are on a mission to help women find the right clothes to suit them and fundamental so, for example, if you are a cornet shape with wide shoulders, narrow hips and long legs you should always wear A-line, single breasted jackets because you're top heavy," Susannah reveals.

"Or if you're a column shape, you should always try to break up your up-and-down body with a funky belt, or a top or dress with a cinched-in waist so that it draws attention to the middle of your body."

In their brand new ITV1 series, Trinny and Susannah Undress The Nation, the girls have the chance to take their innovative new dress code for a road test all over the UK to tackle the country's major style issues.

"Something like 46 per cent of British women are over a size 16 but 80 per cent of high street shops don't stock size 16 and above so larger women often have to shop via catalogues and mail order," reveals Trinny.

"The situation is getting better but it's still very difficult, so rather than going into a shop and picking out all of the size 16s or 18s to try on, no matter what style they are, we want women to ignore the sizes and find the right clothes for their shape instead."

"Just go in and think 'right, I'm going to find all the double-breasted jackets, or all the A-line skirts, or all of the long tailored trousers with pockets at the back or whatever it is that suits my shape' rather than trying on twenty-odd random items in the same size and then getting depressed because none of them actually suit you," she recommends.

Of course, it's not only grown women who make fashion disasters. The teenage generation are just as guilty of putting together catwalk-copied outfits which generally do them no favours at all.

"Right now I would say that a lot of women, especially teenage girls, are wearing very unforgiving skinny jeans simply to feel fashionable and, let's face it, only someone with a Kate Moss-type figure ever looks any good in them," warns Trinny.

"Teenagers are under such enormous pressure from their peers and the media and it's pretty tough if they're not the exact shape that society dictates they should be."

"In my opinion a girl who is pear shaped can still look great as she could just wear a baby doll dress with leggings that come down her mid-calf as a trendy alternative to skinny jeans. There's no shape dilemma that can't be solved," she says.

LIVE AND LOUD

LIPS LIKE OXYGEN: Margate-based heavy rockers – soon to appear on TV show Britain's Got Talent – blast through their song Sugar Coated Poison at Ramsgate's Belgian Café.

SHAMEFUL BEHAVIOUR: Local rockers, drawing on influences such as Kiss and Black Sabbath, perform the song So Fine in style at the lamented Ashford Rocks festival earlier this year.

LOCAL TV ONLINE

TURNSTYLE: Churning out hits from the last 50 years, Maidstone band TurnStyle have been together for nearly a decade. Here they perform the classic Saving All My Love.

CONCRETE JUICE: More than 1,000 views have been chalked up for what is billed as an 'exciting visual feast' by Kate Fotis and Natalie Lungley of Westerham, set to the music of the Prodigy's Under My Wheels.

THE BISCUIT RAPPER RETURNS: EmCee Flapjack is back again, this time with DJ Digestive. They are going to teach you how to move on the dance floor.

THE VALUES: Can you help this clip make it to the 2,000 views milestone? The clip, Please Forgive Me, was made by talented trio Matt Lungley, Will Powell and Brad Stockham from Westerham.

PROPERTY NEWS

Noisy neighbours top quarrel polls

NOISE is still the main reason for neighbourly disputes, according to research by Halifax estate agents.

In the last 12 months over a quarter of us admit to having had disagreements with neighbours – 26 per cent of these were linked to noise.

The report goes on to list the other main causes for neighbours to fall out, including boundary disputes (14 per cent), pets (11 per cent), parking (10 per cent) and bordering or overhanging trees and plants (7 per cent).

Figures show that women outnumbered men when it came to complaining, with anti-social behaviour their largest grievance.

Age also seems to be a factor. A staggering 49 per cent of 16-24 year olds admitted to quarrelling with the neighbours, whilst the 55-64 age group, at 24 per cent, was least likely to have done so.

Geographically, the report identified that those living in the south are over 10 per cent more likely to have had neighbourly disputes sometime during the last year than those living in the North or Midlands.

The conclusion would seem to indicate that if we want harmonious neighbourly relations we should move next-door to a quiet, 60-year-old Yorkshireman.

Investors drawn to our seaside location

SHEPWAY runs from Folkestone all the way along the coast to Dungeness.

The area is steeped in history with a wide range of property types from grand mansion houses to flats and bungalows.

Folkestone, being the larger town, has the widest selection of properties. Prices currently start at about £100,000 which remains quite affordable when compared to the rest of Kent.

Estate agents say that Folkestone remains more expensive than Dover but cheaper than Ashford and Canterbury.

Whilst the majority of sales are local, an increasing number of investors are being drawn to Shepway for the attractive seaside location.

The threefold prospect of the high speed rail link coming to Folkestone in 2009, the town centre being developed and the harbour re-development means that investors are desperate to get on board and buy now before prices increase.

WELCOME: The American way of opening your house for the public to view could be the best way to tackle our slowing property market

Can open viewings help sell houses?

■ BY JENNY SANTOS

AS THE property market slows down, open house viewings could be the next big thing for vendors struggling to sell their homes.

Already the norm in the USA and Australia, the trend seems to be catching on here.

Open viewings see vendors throw open their doors on a fixed day, usually at the weekend, inviting potential buyers to view their home without the constraints of having to make a prior appointment.

Traditionally the domain of prestigious houses, the open house is usually seen as an efficient way for estate agents to condense many viewings into one day or to introduce competitive hype between buyers for high demand properties.

However, with a sluggish property market, the 'open house' can be a useful marketing tool for enthusiastic vendors who are prepared to be pro-active in selling their own home. It seems to make sense. Most estate agents are closed at the weekend when a large number of people are free to look at potential homes.

Buyers can wander around the property at their leisure and vendors can prepare for a single public viewing, rather than trying to live in a constant state of readiness for ad-hoc appointments.

I recently made my own foray into open viewings whilst trying to sell my two-bedroom, terraced cottage.

It had been on the market for six weeks with only a sprinkling of interest and one sole viewing.

Belying first impressions, it really is quite spacious inside with a lovely, large rear garden but with the tired phrase 'must be viewed' not doing the trick, frustration led me to arrange an open day.

I had to face the fact that I was inviting not only potential buyers but also local nosey parkers into my home, but I decided I didn't mind on the basis that local gossip can still generate sales.

Despite short notice – three days to be precise – and therefore only limited advertising, between noon and 4pm on the Sunday I had six potential buyers look around.

Obviously, precautions had to be taken with regard to security. Friends helped out and I removed valuables, personal items and keys. Asking interested parties to pre-register with the agent also prevents people wandering in off the street.

Overall, I thought it was a day well spent but as for the results? A second viewing was requested by one potential buyer – I wait with interest.

Land Rover team has a tough two-day trek

A TEAM from Barretts Land Rover, Ashford, followed some of the world's most adventurous athletes by joining a gruelling competition based upon Land Rover's global G4 Challenge – G4 Trek.

They went to the Land Rover Experience Centre near Ashford to take on teams from other UK dealerships and Barretts Land Rover dealer principal Mark Nicholas said: "The event was a fantastic team-building opportunity and a chance for staff to prove the depth of their product and wider automotive knowledge before sleeping under canvas during the two-day event."

A grand final will be held this weekend.

Small diesels gather favour in used market

USED diesel supermini values have rocketed, with premiums over equivalent petrol models doubling in some cases.

According to market watchers at the trade 'bible', Glass's Guide, two and three-year old diesel examples of best sellers like the Ford Fiesta (pictured) and Peugeot 206, for instance, command £500 more than petrol rivals now when the margin was just £200 a year ago.

The trend is attributed not only to economy, but also to increasing diesel refinement at this end of the market.

Chrysler's retro clout confounds the critics

CRITICS of Chrysler's retro 300C have been contradicted by the executive car's solid secondhand values after two years on the UK market.

A CAP motor trade guide spokesman said: "A two-year-old diesel Chrysler 300C with 30,000 miles on the clock is worth an impressive 67 per cent of the £25,750 it cost when new. In contrast, a BMW 525D of a similar age that cost £31,115 in 2005 is currently worth £19,300 – that's 62 per cent retained value."

NEW LOOK: The Jaguar XK Coupe may leave the traditionalists choking in its wake, but the style changes should keep the brand in the spotlight

Revolution by innovation ousts Jaguar tradition

LISTENING to old guard customers clamouring for tradition got Jaguar into a right old mess.

The marque had been pandering to a vociferous minority that was dying out, instead of looking after the ever-changing dynamic business class that brought Jaguar to power in the 50s and 60s, when innovation was its mantra not tradition.

Fortunately, as Jag seems set to change hands again – Ford is in talks with Indian buyers – innovation is back in vogue and the pivotal model will be next year's XF replacement for the very retro S-Type saloon.

But history may recall that change began with the latest XK Coupe and Convertible models.

We tested a Coupe and, as if to underline change, our car was bright red with the optional alloy-look dashboard rather than 'traditional' wood.

Its sharper lines are a nod to the future too, though there is the briefest backward glance – an oval grille, as worn by the famous D and E-Type sports models.

Apart from that, this car is 'New Jaguar' with distinctive vents on the wings and an aluminium body some 25 per cent lighter than rivals like the equally svelte Mercedes SL and lumpier BMW 6-Series.

This adds to excellent cornering for this muscular-yet-smooth riding car and allows it to sprint to 60 in less than six seconds, and average around 25mpg – almost environmentally-friendly for this market sector.

But that's in 'standard' 300bhp 4.2-litre V8 form as tested here. There is also a loony supercharged 420bhp XKR, but who needs that when the 'cooking version' drives and sounds so good – the V8 delivers the right sound without being intrusive.

The auto gearbox and manual selection via the steering wheel paddles is creamy too, and there are some nice touches inside: push-button starter, classy seats – though the rear ones are useless for carrying even the smallest kids – plus a decent boot for this class of car.

Yes, it would be great if the XK proved to be the moment that innovation rather than tradition launched a Jaguar revival.

USED CAR ROUND-UP: OUR PICK FROM A KEY SECTOR

ALTERNATIVE FAMILY HATCHBACKS

SALES competition in the UK car market is toughest in the family hatchback sector, dominated by big names such as the consistent number one, the Ford Focus and its arch rivals, the Vauxhall Astra and VW Golf. But the sheer demand in this close-fought sector means there are many other strong and attractive alternatives such as the diverse trio we have chosen here: one Spaniard with German underpinnings, a Japanese contender with a 'Made in Britain' stamp and a French contestant with lots of flair plus flexibility.

carsfor Kent.co.uk

SEAT LEON

THIS Spanish spin-off from the previous generation VW Golf is a more likeable car with sleeker styling and a better chassis set-up. The wide nose has an aggressive and sporty look while the five-door body is practical and space efficient. Choice ranges from well-specified entry models to frugal yet lively diesels, right up to the brilliant Cupra R hot hatch. Above all, it is excellent value as a used buy, now that it has been superseded by an all-new version.

PEUGEOT 307

FAMILY hatchbacks have been a Peugeot mainstay for several generations, but the 307 was a more arresting and imposing car than its predecessors. It comes in various body styles: three and five-door hatch, MPV-style SW and estate alternatives and even the sleek Coupe Cabriolet. Engine options include Peugeot's legendary turbo-diesels. With the newly-arrived 308 replacement now appearing in showrooms, a deal on a late-registration 307 could be excellent value.

HONDA CIVIC

FUTURISTIC looks for the latest Civic have made the previous car look very staid – with the notable exception of the Type-R hot hatch version. But the dramatic change has driven values down for the older line-up, making them good value, especially the spacious five-door where the Civic's dash-mounted gearshift is even more effective at visually opening up the front passenger area. Prices are still not the cheapest, but Hondas don't let you down and are British-built at Swindon.

Organisational Performance Temporary Assistant HR Adviser to cover maternity leave Up to £16,725 for 22.5 hrs per week

An excellent opportunity for a self motivated person with drive and enthusiasm

At Shepway District Council we are facing a big challenge to improve the delivery of our services to the community and to become an employer of choice in the south east. Crucial to achieving this is the delivery of a proactive, professional and forward thinking HR service.

Preferably you will be a CIPD qualified professional but must have experience of providing advice and support to line managers with a particular focus on dealing with disciplinary investigations, facilitating organisational change, TUPE transfers and absence management, with the ability to build strong working relationships with partners and trade unions.

If you have the ability to hit the ground running and have the energy, creativity and experience to make a big impact then we want to hear from you. Join us and benefit from the opportunity to move Shepway forward.

For an informal discussion about this role contact Penny Rampton, HR Adviser on 01303 853212. Application details can be downloaded at www.shepway.gov.uk or email jobs@shepway.gov.uk alternatively call our 24 hour answerphone service 01303 853481.

Closing date for completed applications is Friday 23 November 2007.

CHATHAM MARITIME TRUST TRUSTEE

Chatham Maritime Trust was launched in 1997 to take on the long-term maintenance and management of the Chatham Maritime Estate. Chatham Maritime is a 350-acre regeneration site which is well advanced and houses 1300 homes, the Universities at Medway, various leisure developments, and a number of commercial offices. The Trust is responsible for key infrastructure and the public domain, and supports the growing community. The Trust won the 2007 Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors' Award for Property Management Strategy & Delivery (Public Sector). We are seeking one or more additional Trustees to join the Board on a voluntary basis, and are particularly looking for individuals with a background in (property) law, accountancy, PR/Media, or local government/community. Living or working in or near the Medway Towns is desirable. The Board meets three or four times a year (during working hours) but we hope that Trustees will also become involved in a committee and public liaison work, which is likely to lift the commitment to perhaps a day a month.

To apply or if you are interested in additional information, please e-mail Martyn Calder at martyn@cmtrust.co.uk.
Tel: 01634 891888.

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF TEACHERS
OF ENGLISH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE

MEMBERSHIP ADMINISTRATOR GRADE 3 (STARTING £15,050)

An exciting opportunity has arisen for a dynamic, motivated person with administrative experience to work within an international charity. IATEFL is based at the University of Kent in Canterbury. We have a large worldwide membership, publish newsletters and books, and each year we hold a conference and exhibition in the UK.

We are looking for an enthusiastic person with entrepreneurial skills to fill our vacancy for a membership administrator. The appointed person will be expected to take responsibility for all administration concerned with attracting and processing new members and supporting existing members. They will be expected to take a proactive approach to the job. Eagerness to learn, an ability to take initiative and a commitment to the quality of our services are key qualities for this role.

It is essential that you should be a team player with excellent communication and IT skills. A high level of ability and accuracy in data processing, using spreadsheets, wordprocessing and email packages is required. Some experience in seeking sponsorship would be an advantage.

FOXWOOD SCHOOL
THE NORRINGTON CENTRE,

Full time Key Stage 5 TLR2 post available from January 2008

Foxwood is a day and residential (weekly boarding) school for pupils with profound, severe and complex learning difficulties, challenging behaviours, multisensory impairments, physical disabilities and autistic spectrum conditions. We have 114 pupils in total and 16 are in KS5. All students follow ASDAN curriculum modules and in addition, some attend the local FE College with TA support. Although The Norrington Centre is situated 4 miles away from the main Foxwood site it is a highly valued and integral phase of the school provision. We are looking for a dynamic and innovative person to lead a lively Post 16 unit.

We welcome applications from teachers with current mainstream experience as well as teachers with special school experience. The post holder will need to show that they have good management skills and are able to work as part of a larger team.

This School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Payscale: Upper payscale plus SENA and TLR2.

Informal visits are strongly recommended prior to formal application.

Children's Centre Managers

Starting salary £29,190, with progression through contribution related pay to £34,507 per annum

Cheriton: Ref CFE/07/405

Dymchurch: Ref CFE/07/406

New Romney/Lydd: Ref CFE/07/407

Enthusiastic and motivated, you will co-ordinate, develop and promote new Children's Centre services for the Cheriton, Dymchurch and New Romney/Lydd areas, in order to make life better for local children and their families.

Together with our existing centres in Hawkinge, Folkestone and Hythe, these new centres being created on primary school sites will deliver the Sure Start Children's Centre core offer of services to children across Shepway. These services include early education integrated with childcare, family support and outreach to parents, child and family health services and Jobcentre Plus.

You will need to engage local partners from the public, private and voluntary sectors, to work alongside staff from a range of backgrounds and professions and lead effective multi-agency working. Experience of working with local communities is vital, as local children and families are key partners in the development of their Children's Centres. Shepway is a socially and increasingly ethnically diverse district and there is a need to engage families from all backgrounds.

You will have a degree or equivalent professional qualification in health, social work, education, community work or a similar field.

You will have experience of working with children, families and communities and project management experience. You will be able to manage a multi-agency project and have good communication, leadership and budget management skills. You should understand how to promote effective participation of parents, young children and the wider community. You will have or be willing to work towards the National Professional Qualification in Integrated Centre Leadership (NPQICL).

We are committed to ensuring the safety and wellbeing of children and their families. This post is subject to an Enhanced Disclosure Application to the Criminal Records Bureau.

For more information, please contact John Mitchell on 01233 898540 or Veronica Dorset on 01622 626766.

Closing date: midday, 20 November 2007.

Programme Manager - Skills for Life

KAES 6 – 10 £22,200 - £26,475 per annum pro rata

Part-time 18.5 hours per week

Covering Canterbury and Swale (office base to be negotiated)

Ref: CD/07/262

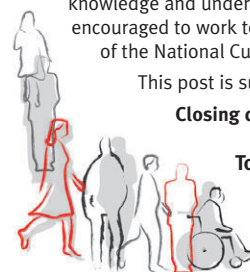

Enthusiastic and forward thinking, you will develop, manage and deliver Family Literacy, Language and Numeracy (FLLN) programmes, alongside other Skills for Life programmes.

Ensuring high quality learning opportunities meet KAES and LSC Quality Standards, you will plan, deliver, monitor and quality assure Skills for Life courses as part of a county-wide team. You will lead, develop and support tutors, ensuring learner retention, achievement, success and progression.

FLLN courses are designed to help parents/carers to support their children's learning through knowledge and understanding of the school curriculum and improve their own skills. Students are encouraged to work towards the National Tests in Literacy and Numeracy. Experience (or knowledge) of the National Curriculum strategy is an advantage.

This post is subject to an Enhanced Disclosure Application to the Criminal Records Bureau.

BTCV is the UK's leading practical conservation charity working with people from all sectors of the community in positive action to improve the natural environment.

Environment Centre Manager - Singleton Ref: ECMS

Based in Ashford, Kent, 35 hours per week
Salary £20,970 to £27,854

This role will be to drive the business and manage the new Singleton Environment Centre in Ashford, Kent. This is a new facility, delivered in partnership with Ashford Borough Council, that is to be developed both as a flagship for local environmental action, and for BTCV as an organisation. Equally important will be the role it plays as a local community facility for Singleton and the wider Ashford area. It will involve creating and implementing business and operational plans for the centre, being responsible for ensuring the financial viability of the facility and managing staff and contracts such as a catering franchise.

You will be required to promote the centre to a wide audience and manage the centre's use and activities. This is a new undertaking and so you will be required to develop information systems and report back to the centre's steering group on a regular basis.

You will have proven experience of managing facilities or business, be dynamic and entrepreneurial with the dedication needed to drive the business forward and have excellent computer skills, and demonstrate good communication and time management skills.

The post holder will be employed by BTCV and report to the BTCV Area Manager.

EMPLOYMENT IS THE GOAL, EDUCATION IS THE KEY

Rainer City Training Solent has an outstanding track record of engaging with under supported young people. Our entry to employment programme (e2e) achieved a 72% success rate, with learners progressing into work, education or further training. Building on our successes in the Solent area we are now establishing our e2e provision in Kent. We are looking for an educational practitioner who can communicate their passion for learning to our young people.

Learning & Employment Co-ordinator

Up to £25,402

Kent – Swale, Thanet & Medway

Ideal for an experienced teacher or trainer, this peripatetic role involves developing and delivering our E2E programme through community based venues in Swale, Thanet and Medway. You'll induct, guide and support E2E learners – assessing their needs and working with them to establish an appropriate Learning Plan. Having done so, you'll then provide training, monitor progress and forge links with other agencies involved in programme delivery.

To meet this challenge, you'll need qualifications in such areas as teaching, training and counselling in the development of learning. An understanding of NVQs and Key Skills is important too, as is the ability to record information. Crucially, you must also be able to communicate with, and relate to, young adults – particularly those who are under supported.

BELIEVING IN YOUNG PEOPLE

Successful candidates will be required to consent to checks by the Criminal Records Bureau and like the idea of service users having a say in their appointment.

Diversity is our strength. Could you make us stronger?

The role involves :-

1. Liaising with existing and potential clients on the telephone
2. Providing first line support for the products and services provided by the Company
3. Liaising with suppliers
4. Liaising with contractors and service partners
5. Customer Service Administration
6. Product and service provisioning

Phoenix Link provides a range of services including:- BT telephone lines, call packages, mobile voice and data, telephone systems, VoIP, audio conferencing and ADSL broadband.

Phoenix Link innovative products maximize the benefits from available technology to provide efficient, bespoke services to clients.

Telesales Executives

Our recruitment section just got bigger

With the launch of eight new local newspapers, local websites and web tv, plus the award winning Kent on Sunday and Kentish Saturday Observer, our recruitment offering just gets bigger and bigger.

We are now looking to recruit two highly driven, confident, self motivated team players, who are able to work under pressure to deadline and target, in our fast paced and fun recruitment department.

You will be working with an existing client base where customer service is paramount, but you must also be able to search out new business to develop and grow your territory revenues and opportunities. Due to location, you need to have your own transport and a proven track record in sales is preferable.

We offer: OTE £20,000

- Good basic salary
- Performance and revenue related bonuses
- Five weeks holiday a year

To join a visionary and exciting media company, please phone Christine Davidson, Recruitment Manager on 01303 817040 or email your CV and covering note to christine.davidson@kosmedia.co.uk

Award Winning Company

Share the benefits of being a Partner in our business

Section Manager, Transport

Morning shift: £21,600 - £27,800 & benefits
37.5 hours per week over 5 days · Aylesford

At Waitrose, we're in the process of opening a new Regional Distribution Centre here in Aylesford. We've got big plans for the centre to grow, embrace new technologies and eventually serve over 50 branches across the south of England.

If you can help to ensure the smooth running of our transport operation so that delivery targets are consistently met, we'll give you a lot in return. For a start, you'll work 37.5 hours per week over 5 days, so you'll have plenty of time to pursue your other interests. You'll also enjoy all the benefits of being a Partner in our business. As well as being part of an excellent profit-sharing scheme, which this year was equivalent to nine weeks' pay, you can look forward to discounts in Waitrose and John Lewis stores, pension scheme, free life assurance, subsidised educational, leisure and sporting activities, subsidised meals and five weeks' holiday after three years' service.

You'll lead a team of Transport Operators and Drivers, ensuring that the day-to-day operation runs as efficiently and cost-effectively as possible. This will involve maintaining high standards in areas such as service levels, road safety and workplace health & safety, as well as managing the site load plan and delivery schedule. Motivating and appraising your team will also be an important aspect of your role.

You might be in a similar transport/retail logistics role at the moment... or you might have the potential to step up to this level. Either way, you'll need good knowledge of the transport industry, a proactive and organised approach, a cool head under pressure and the ability to think on your feet. Good people management skills are essential in this role.

To apply, please send your CV, quoting reference SMT1, to Lorraine Robinson, Assistant Personnel Manager Supply Chain, Waitrose RDC, Beddow Way, Aylesford, Kent ME20 7AT.

Closing date: 23rd November 2007.

The Partnership is committed to providing equal opportunities for all regardless of differences such as gender, ethnic origin, disability, sexual orientation, age, social background, religion and belief.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Tribunals prove rather popular, and very costly

THE South East has the highest number of employment tribunal claims related to sex discrimination in the UK, according to figures published by employment relations firm Acas.

The South East had 2,255 claims in the year. London came second with 920.

The South East also saw the highest number of employment tribunal claims relating to working time with 1,113. Unfair dismissal was clearly the biggest workplace worry for South East workers, with 3,520 claims made.

The average cost of a claim is around £7,500. Acas says employers should phone its helpline – 08457 474747 – for advice early in the process.

'We should be left to find our own solutions'

FRAZER THOMPSON, chairman of the Kent branch of the Institute of Directors has taken a swipe at the Prime Minister after last week's Queen's Speech, branding it not good for business.

Mr Thompson said the Government "shows it still thinks it can solve everything by legislation and regulation".

He continued: "The package addresses many of the right issues – especially skills, energy and transport.

"But too often proposals are about Government imposing top-down plans, rather than Government making it easier for businesses, individuals and communities to find the solutions that work for them."

Make sure you cash in on speedy payments

RECENT postal strikes, turbulence in the banking system and the financial strains of the holiday season make it more important than ever for Kent companies to keep an eye on cash flow, warns Business Link.

According to their research, late payment from customers is a major problem for nearly one in five (19 per cent) Kent companies.

Business Link advisor Ian Netherton said: "Money is no use to a business until it is in the bank – poor cash flow is the biggest single killer of otherwise viable businesses."

NATURAL BEAUTY: The tourism industry needs to protect and contribute to stunning countryside like this near Wye to encourage visitors and help ensure its long-term future

Time to go green and win gold in tourism

■ BY JON COATES

BUSINESSES have been urged to cash in on the growing market in eco-friendly tourism.

Visitor attractions, hotels, bed-and-breakfasts and working farms in Kent can save money through energy conservation, efficient water use and cutting down on waste.

In doing so, they will boost their appeal to people looking to enjoy holidays, walks or leisure activities without spoiling our beautiful countryside.

The nationally recognised Green Tourism Business Scheme provides a framework for companies to implement good environmental practice.

Grants and support are available to businesses in the leisure and tourism industry wanting to become more sustainable.

As part of the scheme, ventures are assessed every two years on 120 different measures of best practice.

There are three compulsory sections and companies achieving three successes in each of these get bronze awards, those meeting four get silver, and those achieving five gold.

So far 17 businesses in Kent have gained

SUCCESS: Brenley Farm at Boughton – a silver award winner for its bed and breakfast on a working farm accreditation, with two getting gold awards, 10 achieving silver and five bronze.

Alkham Court at South Alkham, near Dover, which offers bed and breakfast on a working farm, and Palace Farm Hostel at Doddington, near Faversham, which offers family rooms on a working farm, both achieved gold status.

Silver award winners include Kent Gliding Club at Challock, near Ashford, Tanner Farm at Marden, a caravan and camping park, and Great Field Farm at Stelling Minnis, near Canterbury, which offers bed and breakfast.

Two workshops have been organised by Kent Downs and Natural East Kent Sustainable Tourism Project to help business leaders understand the scheme and give advice on how to join it.

The day-long events will take place at Kent Showground in Detling, near Maidstone, on Wednesday, November 28, and at Minster village hall in Thanet, the day after.

Organisers hope to hold more workshops around the county at later dates.

Fran Warrington, head of Kent Tourism, said: "Businesses in our sector can no longer afford to ignore environmental issues.

"We have to work together so that Kent is well placed to take advantage of the growing green tourism market, as well as ensuring the sustainability of our own businesses and the sector as a whole."

For more details about the scheme and workshops, phone Sarah Loftus on 01303 815174.

Town secure fifth victory

FOUR unanswered goals against Tunbridge Wells paved the way for Deal Town's fifth victory in the Kent league this season.

Derek Hares' side opened the scoring, five minutes before the break with a penalty from Dave Bathgate.

In the second half Deal pressed for another goal and were immediately rewarded when David Cory's effort sailed into the net. Midway through the half Deal added a third, before Mark Pollard made it 4-0.

Deal are now ninth in the Kent League and will be in cup action in the FA Vase against Moneyfields on Saturday.

Gillingham striker Delroy Facey talks about life at Priestfield Stadium

Three goals nets third win in row

PAUL FISK'S Hythe Town extended their unbeaten run to three games, after a 3-0 victory against struggling Holmesdale in the Premier Division Cup.

The Holmesdale defence stood firm for the majority of the first half and it took a clinical finish to break the deadlock.

Five minutes before half-time, Jason Brazier's goalbound shot found the back of the net and Hythe took a slender 1-0 lead into break.

In the second half, Town continued to attack the Holmesdale defence and were rewarded.

On 70 minutes, Hythe doubled their advantage, when Ian Hayes waltzed into the area and fired past the Holmesdale goalkeeper.

Just seven minutes later, Hythe completed the victory with a third goal. Buster Smissen netted his 18th goal of the season, when his run and shot was too good for the Holmesdale goalkeeper.

The result moves Hythe to the top of group D in the Premier Division Cup. Town are back in action against Erith Town on Saturday.

AT THE DOUBLE: Dover beat league leaders and local rivals Deal & Betteshanger for the second time this season

Sharks drill home a second derby win

RUGBY

■ BY TOM HOWARD

Deal & Betteshanger 24
Dover Sharks 37

DOVER SHARKS shocked the home fans at the Drill Field as they marched on to secure their second win this year over arch-rivals Deal & Betteshanger

The game was a hotly contested derby with a real atmosphere created by more than 300 fans cheering from the sidelines.

It was the Lions who started brightly winning a penalty early on. Fly-half Tom Best kept his cool and put the ball between the posts to take the lead.

Minutes later, Dover pegged them back with a successful penalty of their own from Martyn Beaumont.

It was Dover who scored the first try of the match, when Jamie Townley made a break through the Lions defence and his offload to Trigger Davison allowed him to cross the line. Beaumont added the extras.

Just before the break, the Lions had something to show for their efforts, with a try of their own. A swift passing move saw the ball end in the hands of winger Luke Armstrong, who ran past the full-back to score in the corner. Best added the conversion to cut the deficit to just three points.

On the stroke of half-time, Dover halted the Lions' comeback with another try. A quick passing move from a scrum saw Ben Sedgwick cross the line in the corner. Dover led 18-10 at the break.

In the second half, the Sharks resumed where they had left off and scored another try, when Davison's hand-off created a space for him to cross the line.

Deal, now with a mountain to climb, needed at least two scores to take the lead. On the hour, they got back in the game with a try from prop Sam Cullis, who pushed his way over the line from a scrum.

The Sharks did not want a fight back on their hands and they scored the try of the day five minutes later. Ricky Mackintosh finished a clinical move, receiving the ball from a superb reverse pass to score under the posts.

Deal & Betteshanger were awarded a penalty try in the dying minutes of the game, but it wasn't enough as Dover claimed all the points.

Lions manager Martin Michael said: "It was a disappointing loss. I didn't think the ref was at his best. We have got to buckle down and get a win against top-of-the-league Gravesend in two weeks time."

A delighted Dover coach Graham Tonks said: "I am very pleased with the result especially winning the local derby. It was very important for us today to get the two points. We need to be a bit more consistent. This does justice to a disappointing performance last week."

GOAL SCORER: Jimmy Dryden nets his fifth goal in as many games

Dover away form continues

FOOTBALL

Chipstead 1
Dover Athletic 3

NEW signing Shaun Welford netted his first goal for Dover Athletic in a convincing win against struggling Chipstead.

Dover were a much stronger team creating many chances in the first half, as Jimmy Dryden and Frannie Collin made netted one each.

Manager Andy Hessenthaler said: "It was a decent win, but it wasn't a great performance. I have said this a few times this season, we did take our foot off the gas a bit in the second half.

"I didn't think we were in any danger of losing the game, even though they scored a penalty and got right back in the match.

"We have had a great away form so far this season with seven wins and a draw which is fantastic."

Hessenthaler was without his first choice goalkeeper Dean Ruddy and had to bring in an emergency replacement in the shape of Crystal Palace third-choice keeper, David Wilkinson during the week.

He is on a month's loan deal at Crabble.

Hessenthaler said: "We had to make a few changes. I couldn't play because of a knock I picked up in the week and our goalkeeper Dean Ruddy will be out for a few weeks with a bad shoulder injury.

"I spoke to Neil Warnock in the week and he has done me a real favour. Wilkinson looked very assured and I was delighted with him."

The result leaves Dover just a point behind leaders Tooting & Mitcham, with the two teams meeting next week at Crabble.

• Dover had to come from behind last Tuesday against Sittingbourne at Bourne Park, but second half goals from Jimmy Dryden and Jon Wallace secured a 2-1 victory against the managerless Brickies.

Cugley on lookout for power up front

FOOTBALL

BY YOURSHEPWAY REPORTER

Maidstone United 2

Folkestone Invicta 0

NEIL Cugley's Folkestone Invicta slumped to their sixth league defeat of the season in their first competitive fixture with Maidstone United in 27 years.

A lack of cutting edge in the final third cost Invicta, as two goals in the final 20 minutes from striker Andy Martin sealed the victory for the home side.

Folkestone gave new loan signing Tom Bryant a start after arriving from Gillingham during the week, but the 19-year-old could not prevent his team sliding to defeat.

Cugley said: "The goal scoring opportunities cost us and I felt we were unlucky with one of the Maidstone goals.

"From where I was it looked like a foul on the goalkeeper. At that time it was 0-0, so it changed the game. I didn't feel like we deserved anything today though. We never looked like scoring."

Folkestone have found it difficult to score goals this season, netting just six times at home. This has prompted manager Cugley to find some more fire-power up front.

He said: "We definitely need some new players to come into the squad in order to rectify our problems up front. I am on the look-out for a striker, as we do not have enough quality in the final third. It is never that easy to find a striker at this stage and it's often the hardest place to fill. I will be looking at some clubs in the lower leagues in the hope to find someone to help us."

This Saturday Folkestone have a tough trip to top-of-the-league Chelmsford City.

Last Tuesday, Invicta crashed out of the Ryman League cup with a 4-3 defeat to Horsham YMCA of Ryman Division One South.

GOAL DROUGHT: Folkestone Invicta are finding goals hard to come by and slipped to another defeat

Festival may ground to a halt

HOCKEY

THE future of the International Hockey Festival is in the balance after Kent and Sussex Regional league umpires deemed the facilities at Folkestone's Cheriton Road ground unplayable.

The festival celebrated its 100th anniversary last year, but the event has gone downhill according to organisers, and no longer attracts top-quality hockey sides.

The event is usually held over the course of the Easter weekend and is the oldest festival in the country.

It is organised by Folkestone Optimist Hockey Club, who have been using the artificial pitch since it was laid in 1987.

The club claims the pitch has deteriorated so badly that the Men's 1st XI have been forced to play their games at the Towers School in Ashford.

Chairman Steve Shaw said: "The lights are not suitable for league hockey and on top of that, when they are damaged they are not properly repaired.

"For the last 10 years it has been degraded

POOR STATE: The Cheriton Road sports ground is in need of maintenance work if it is to stage the International Hockey Festival to such a level that we cannot play on it. Grass is growing through one side of the astro turf and the drainage is appalling."

Shaw expects the festival to go ahead next year, but said if there is no upgrade in facilities at Cheriton Road, it will be even harder to stage the event.

He said: "Over the years the level of the pitches has just degraded and it has meant the festival has become just a social event now and there is no quality hockey there anymore."

A Shepway District Council spokeswoman said: "We recognise that due to the age of the pitch there are some problems and we have been doing our best to improve the situation with remedial work. Though the replacement of the pitch has been highlighted as a priority, this will be very costly and we have to look at our options alongside other calls on our limited resources."

SPORT IN BRIEF

Unbeaten Deal get a draw against leaders

YVETTE ILLSLEYS Deal Ladies hockey team maintained their unbeaten run with a 0-0 draw against league-leaders Maidstone.

In a hardfought game, neither side could break the deadlock with honours even when the final whistle blew.

Deal are still the only side in the Kent ladies Division Two who are still unbeaten.

They will hope to keep that record when they face Gillingham Anchorians this Saturday. A win could put them second in the league.

Bulls go head-to-head in Darts League climax

THE Dover Darts Invitational League is coming towards a climax, with two teams at the top of the league still unbeaten.

Bull A will face Bull B this week following their 6-3 win against Archer.

Boars Head Diamonds will want to keep the pressure on Bull A, with a victory against Archer. The team will go into this fixture full of confidence after their 7-2 demolition of Seamans Mission.

Elsewhere in the league, Dublin Man of War take on Phoenix A hoping for victory, to keep in the hunt at the top.

Optimists hoping to bounce back after defeat

FOLKESTONE Optimist Hockey men's first team slumped to their third defeat of the season with a 3-2 reverse at Ball Lane.

Folkestone scored twice in the match, but it was not enough for the victory, as Tunbridge Wells scored three goals to claim all the points.

Folkestone are now hovering above the bottom three in the Kent and Sussex Regional League.

They will hope to bounce back when they travel to play Marden Russets.

Folkestone resting near bottom after big loss

ONE try for Folkestone Rugby Club was not enough to secure their third win of the season, as they slumped to an 8-20 home defeat.

Crowborough were much the stronger side and were clinical with their attacking breaks.

The result leaves Folkestone two points from bottom in London Four South East.

This week the first team has a break, but they will be back in action next Saturday against Beccehamians.
